MIEMSS Report

Dr. Delbridge thanked everyone that attended the celebration to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the EMS system in Maryland. He also thanked the MIEMSS staff for their work in putting the event together.

COVID-19

Dr. Delbridge said that MDH is tracking an uptick in the number of COVID hospitalizations. Presently, 2% of Maryland hospitalized patients have COVID.

Critical Care Coordination Center (C-4)

Dr. Delbridge said that the number of C-4 patient referrals continues to receive a few calls each day. MDH continues to fund the C-4.

Dr. Delbridge said that since March of 2019 through the MEMRAD system, MIEMSS has queried hospitals with approximately 30 questions each day. MIEMSS is working with the recipients, currently utilizing the data captured from the daily queries, to scale back the frequency and possibly the number of questions asked.

Patient Transfer of Care Intervals

Dr. Delbridge reported that since January 1, 2024, EMS has transported 326,290 patients. Approximately 3.5% of patient transports are to out-of-state hospitals. Anne Arundel Medical Center is the busiest receiving hospital in Maryland.

Dr. Delbridge said that 90% of the time EMS should be able to effect a 30 minute transfer of patient care to hospital emergency department staff. Dr. Delbridge provided a graphic showing that more than half of Maryland emergency department struggle with attaining the 30 minute patient transfer of care time.

The Health Services Cost Review Commission (HSCRC) is implementing three reporting measures for hospital emergency departments. On a monthly basis, MIEMSS will be reporting the EMS transfer-of-care times for each hospital (90th percentile times, based on a 30 minute transfer time for 90% of transports to the ED). HSCRC has indicated that they may base part of hospital reimbursements (incentive or penalty) on EMS to ED patient transfer-of-care times. It is imperative that statewide times used are uniformly measured

Emergency Department Advisory System (EDAS)

Dr. Delbridge gave an overview of the challenges that have arisen in launching EDAS. Hospitals do not submit data to CRISP in the same manner. MIEMSS continues to work with hospitals on proposed procedural/work flow modifications for providing data.

Emergency Department Throughput Workgroup

Dr. Delbridge said that, although legislation did not pass regarding creating a taskforce to work on ED wait times, legislators directed MHA, with MIEMSS' assistance, to work on policy initiatives regarding ED throughput. Dailey, approximately 25% of patients are boarded in the ED after completing their emergency department care; 20% are behavioral health patients waiting for transfer to another facility.

The first meeting was held on July 27th with the workgroup providing perspectives on how the issue of ED Boarding and throughput is viewed. The workgroup has 24 members including representation for HSCRC and MDH. Reporting to the legislature is due in December.

Commission to Study Trauma Center Funding in Maryland (SB 493 / HB 675) –

MIEMSS and the Maryland Health Care Commission (MHCC) are co-chairing and staffing the Commission to study the adequacy of funding for designated trauma centers for their operating, capital and workforce costs. By December 1, 2023, the Commission must report findings and recommendations regarding changes in staffing, recruitment, compensation or other factors that would impact the funding needed to operate a trauma centers, the amount of funding needed to adequately fund trauma centers, and other factors. The Commission includes every level trauma center and others as designated in the statute. The first meeting is scheduled for August 16th where Commission members will provide their perspectives on trauma funding and receive a primer on the Trauma Physician Services fund by MHCC. Distribution of trauma center funding is restricted by statute.

Dr. Delbridge provided a graph showing distribution by anatomic region to Maryland trauma centers with the majority of serious injuries to the head and neck. Most trauma patients are in the lower category of injury severity, ISS scores of 1-12, with a cadre of patients with ISS scores of 1-3 or no injuries. Dr. Westerband said it would be interesting to see data on anatomic region of serious injury by age.

Commission to Advance and Strengthen Fire Fighting and Emergency Medical Services Within Maryland (SB 414 / HB 788)

This legislation established a Commission to study and make recommendations regarding: (1) the effectiveness and viability of uniform incentives, offerings, or practices employed in other states to attract, support, and retain individuals in firefighting and EMS roles; (2) the suitability of comparable or similar incentives, offerings, and practices as compared to the landscape of the State; and (3) any other global issues the Commission may consider useful in enhancing and supporting career and volunteer fire fighting and EMS in the State.

The Commission is gathering information via survey on other state initiatives regarding recruitment and retention.

Pediatric Facility Readiness Recognition

Dr. Delbridge said that, under the Federal EMS-C grant, facility recognition is a mandated measure for the EMS-C program in all states. MIEMSS' EMS-C program is building upon the work done as part of the C4-Pediatric to understand the pediatric capacities in the state. The MIEMSS EMS-C team, led by Cyndy Wright Johnson and Dr. Jen Anders, are working to create a hospital/emergency department recognition program that stratifies the capacity of the hospital with a designation of three levels of care for children. It is anticipated that the volunteer recognition program will start by the end of 2024.
