

CRISIS REACTION

A NORMAL REACTION TO AN ABNORMAL SITUATION

Possible Reactions

Numbness

Crying

Fatigue

Sleep disturbances

Headaches/upset stomach

Change in appetite/weight

Low resistance to illness

Concentration problems

Memory problems

Religious confusion

Loss of trust

Anniversary difficulties

Alcohol/drug use

Excessive use of sick leave

Work/School/Family problems

Suicidal thoughts

Withdrawal

Difficulty returning to normal activity level

Flashbacks

Regression

Confusion

Feeling overwhelmed

Feeling inadequate

Frustration

Helplessness

Irritability

Depression

Despair

Grief

Guilt

Anger

Outrage

Insecurity

Fear

Anxiety

Self-doubt

- All of these feelings and reactions are normal and natural even though they may seem unusual and some are very different from others.
- We are all individuals and respond in our own unique way.
- The incident cannot be erased the memory will always be a part of your life.
- Everyone moves at their own pace through the stages of crisis and healing.
- Everyone has their own clock.
- For some people, there may be ongoing problems.

Some Things You Can Do To Manage Your Own Stress

- 1. Do some vigorous exercise play as hard as you work.
- 2. Eat balanced meals the "good stuff" is good for you.
- 3. Keep your daily routine regular activities provide structure.
- 4. Talk about what happened with coworkers involved they understand.
- 5. Talk about what you are feeling with a family member or friend that is what friends are for.
- 6. Laugh it is good for the soul.
- 7. Relax get some rest, even if you don't sleep.
- 8. Don't fight going to sleep it will come when you are ready.
- 9. Dreams and nightmares happen talking will help them go away.
- 10.Don't Monday-morning quarterback you did your job.
- 11. Avoid alcohol and drugs.

12. Remember:

- You can't save them all so save yourself.
- You can afford to be good to yourself.
- Today is what you have make it count.
- Get a hug.
- Don't sweat the small stuff it's almost all small stuff.
- If you wish to be a good service provider, it is important to take care of yourself.

Please use the MIEMSS EMRC CISM number for assistance: 1-800-648-3001.